

METRICH confiscates drugs, cash

The METRICH Enforcement Unit recovered three pounds of marijuana and $2,000 from the residence of an 18-year-old man Friday.

Cory Shepherd had been arrested Wednesday during a drug sweep. He had been indicted on two counts of trafficking in marijuana.

After Shepherd was released on bond, probation officers checked his residence at 3768 Ohio 39 and found Shepherd wasn't there. They contacted METRICH detectives, who obtained a warrant and searched the residence.

Shepherd was one of 44 people indicted as part of the sweep. Authorities arrested three other people during simultaneous raids at 110 S. Foster St. and 475 Pennsylvania Ave.

Originally published in the News Journal on December 20, 2009.