

Authorities arrest two people after Monday search

Two people were arrested in a METRICH Drug Task Force search on Monday night. The task force executed a search warrant at 215 Edith Ave. in Findlay at 9:37 p.m., according to the Findlay Police Department.

Ashley Baldrige, 24, of Findlay, was charged with possession of crack cocaine, a fifth-degree felony, and Kenneth Schellenberg, 23, also of Findlay, was taken into custody on an adult parole warrant.

A search of the residence yielded crack cocaine, cash, drug paraphernalia and other items that indicated drug trafficking, according to police. Additional charges and arrests are expected after the conclusion of the investigation, police said.

Originally published in The Courier on April 18, 2018.