

Two Arrested In Findlay Drug Bust

Two people are behind bars after the Hancock County METRICH Drug Task Force executed a search warrant. The task force searched 527 Allen Avenue in Findlay around 5:30 a.m. on Wednesday. They found crack cocaine, methamphetamine, marijuana, prescription pills, cash, 2 handguns, a rifle, drug paraphernalia, and items indicative of drug trafficking.

They arrested 24-year-old Bryshaun Dodds of Findlay for possession and weapons under disability charges. They also arrested 36-year-old Elizabeth Wells for a misdemeanor warrant.

Additional charges are expected pending the conclusion of this investigation.
