

Findlay man arrested on multiple drug-related charges following home raid

A Findlay man was arrested by the METRICH Drug Task Force during raid of his home Thursday afternoon.

Gary Spiegel, 51, is facing three counts of trafficking in drugs, possession of drugs, permitting drug abuse and having weapons under disability. The task force, along with officers from the Findlay Police Department, served a narcotic search warrant at 404 Lester Ave. in Findlay at 12 p.m.

They found several items of drug paraphernalia and other items indicative of drug trafficking. Additional charges of drug trafficking, possession of drugs and permitting drug abuse are expected at the conclusion of this investigation.
